

Civil Engineer/E.I.T. - Fort Worth, TX Office

Company:	Gorrondona & Associates, Inc.	Location:	Fort Worth, TX
Status:	Full Time, Employee	Job Category:	Engineering
Relevant Work Experience:	N/A	Career Level:	Manager (Manager/Supervisor of Staff)
Education Level:	B.S.

A Fort Worth firm established in 1990 seeks a Civil Engineer interested in learning how manage engineering and construction projects. This is an EXCELLENT opportunity for the right person.

Required qualifications include:

- Engineer-in-Training (EIT)
- Knowledge of utility design, construction and installation
- Intersted in coordinating and scheduling installation of utilities, including water lines, electrical & telephone distribution systems, gas pipelines, storm sewers, and sanitary sewers
- Ability to learn and understanding of TxDOT Utility Accommodation Rules
- Working knowledge of MS Office products, AutoCAD and/or MicroStation
- Excellent written and oral communication skills

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Utility design review and utility conflict resolution studies
- Review of subsurface and overhead utility design to ensure no conflicts exist between proposed utilities and roadway design
- Review of infrastructure conflicts and oversight of utility design adjustments
- Schedule and coordinate the work of project engineers and task leaders
- Assist in coordinating field inspection staff and utility locate crews
- Attend utility coordination and design meetings

Compensation:

- Commensurate with experience
- Paid health and life insurance; dental, vision, and disability insurance available